Movado Group, Inc. Completes Ebel Acquisition

March 1, 2004

PARAMUS, N.J., March 1 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Movado Group, Inc. (NYSE: MOV) today announced that it has successfully completed the acquisition of Ebel, one of the world's premier luxury watch brands, from LVMH, Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton, (Reuters: LVMH.PA).

With its distinctive and internationally recognized image, Ebel is an excellent complement to Movado Group's portfolio of brands, extending its presence within the luxury watch category and international markets.

Efraim Grinberg, President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are very pleased to welcome the Ebel brand into Movado Group. With a tremendous heritage, having been founded nearly a century ago in La Chaux de Fonds, Switzerland, Ebel, today, is truly a global luxury brand. The powerful combination of Ebel's distinguished heritage, iconic designs and technical expertise, together with Movado Group's proven track record, will allow Ebel to become an even stronger Swiss luxury brand in the future than it is today. We intend to provide the necessary resources to build upon Ebel's heritage and maximize the potential of the brand while generating long-term value for our shareholders."

Movado Group, Inc. designs, manufactures, and distributes Movado, Ebel, Concord, ESQ, Coach and Tommy Hilfiger watches worldwide, and operates Movado boutiques and Company stores in the United States.
