Movado Group, Inc. Recognized by InformationWeek as One of the Nation's Most Innovative Users of Business Technology Ranking in the Top 100 of the InformationWeek 500

September 21, 2010

PARAMUS, N.J., Sept 21, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

Movado Group, Inc. (NYSE: MOV) -- InformationWeek announced the results of its 22nd annual InformationWeek 500 ranking of the nation's most innovative users of business technology. Movado Group Inc. (MGI), an industry leader in watch design and manufacturing, placed in the Top 100 for the second consecutive year.

InformationWeek identifies and honors the nation's most innovative users of information technology with its annual 500 listing, and also tracks the technology, strategies, investments and administrative practices of America's best-known companies. The InformationWeek 500 ranking is unique among corporate rankings as it spotlights the power of innovation in information technology, rather than simply identifying the biggest IT spenders. "For 22 years, the InformationWeek 500 has honored the most innovative users of business technology," said InformationWeek Editor In Chief Rob Preston. "As we start to emerge from the worst recession in decades, the IT focus is now on driving growth - new sources of revenue, new relationships with customers, even new business models. This year's ranking placed special emphasis on those companies and business technology executives leading that charge."

Movado Group Inc. (MGI) earned the ranking based on the global footprint of integrated functionality and the ability to leverage the technology foundation to produce powerful inventory analytics to support management during the recession. "Our technology efforts can only succeed with the strong support and teamwork of our user base. It is extremely gratifying to see the hard work and team effort of all MGI employees around the globe being recognized," said Dr. Frank Morelli, SVP Global Business Processes & CIO. "We are certainly proud to be included in the InformationWeek 500."
