PROXY STATEMENT

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE SOLICITATION

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are being furnished to the shareholders of Movado Group, Inc. (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company to be used for voting at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Thursday, June 16, 2005 at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the Company's executive offices located at 650 From Road, Paramus, New Jersey and at any adjournments thereof. It is expected that this proxy statement and the form of proxy will first be sent to shareholders on or about May 16, 2005.

At the Annual Meeting, the holders of the Company's Common Stock and Class A Common Stock (together the "Capital Stock") will be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals:

1. To elect eight directors to serve until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified; and
2. To ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2006; and
3. To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof.

The Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented at the Annual Meeting. If any other business is properly presented, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have the power to vote all proxies received, and not theretofore revoked, in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. If the enclosed proxy is properly executed, returned to the Company in time for the Annual Meeting and not revoked, your shares will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained thereon. Where a signed proxy is returned, but no specific instructions are indicated, your shares will be voted as follows: FOR the nominees for Directors identified below; and FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants for fiscal year 2006.

Abstentions will be treated as present for purposes of determining a quorum for the Annual Meeting. Proxies returned by brokers as "non-votes" will not be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Any shareholder who executes and returns a proxy may revoke it in writing at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by: (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company, at the above address, written notice of such revocation bearing a later date than the proxy or a subsequent proxy relating to the same shares or (ii) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy).

The solicitation of proxies in the enclosed form is made on behalf of the Board of Directors. The entire cost of soliciting these proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by officers, directors and employees of the Company, who will receive no additional compensation for such activities. Arrangements will be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons, who will be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses incurred in such connection.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on May 12, 2005 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"). Only holders of record of the Capital Stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any and all adjournments thereof. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter which is available on the Company's website at www.movadogroup.com and in print upon the written request of any shareholder.

Compensation Committee

The directors serving on the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors are Ms. Hayes Adame and Messrs. Howard, Leventhal, Oresman and Silverstein. Mr. Howard is the chairman of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee held seven meetings in fiscal 2005. The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to (i) review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives and set the CEO's compensation level based on that evaluation; (ii) review and approve compensation levels for executive non-CEO officers and key employees of the Company; (iii) review significant employee benefit programs and (iv) establish and administer executive compensation programs, including bonus plans, stock option and other equity-based programs, deferred compensation plans and any other cash or stock incentive programs. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter, which is available on the Company's website at www.movadogroup.com and in print upon the written request of any shareholder.

Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, currently composed of Ms. Hayes Adame and Messrs. Howard, Leventhal, Oresman and Silverstein, held one meeting in fiscal 2005. Mr. Leventhal is the chairman of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. The principal functions of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee are to (i) identify individuals qualified to become directors, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and recommend director candidates to the Board of Directors; (ii) develop and recommend corporate governance principles to the Board of Directors; (iii) oversee the adoption of a code of ethics for directors, officers and employees of the Company and assure that procedures are in place for disclosure of any waivers of that code for directors or executive officers; and (iv) oversee the evaluation of the Board. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee operates under a written charter. Copies of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee charter, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are available on the Company's website at www.movadogroup.com and in print upon the written request of any shareholder.

In considering possible candidates for director, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will take into account all appropriate qualifications, qualities and skills in the context of the current make-up of the Board and will consider the entirety of each candidate's credentials. In addition, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate each nominee according to the following criteria: personal character, accomplishments, integrity, and reputation in the business community; knowledge of the industry in which the Company does business; sound business judgment; leadership ability and capacity for strategic thinking; experience working constructively with others; sufficient time to devote to Board matters; diversity of viewpoints and backgrounds and the absence of any conflict of interest that might interfere with performance as a director.

Shareholders may recommend director candidates for consideration by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. To have a candidate considered by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, a shareholder must submit the recommendation in writing and must include the following information:

- The name of the shareholder and evidence of the person's ownership of Company stock, including the number and class of shares owned and the length of time of ownership; and
- The name of the candidate, the candidate's resume or a listing of his or her qualifications to be a director of the Company and the person's consent to be named as a director if nominated by the Board of Directors.

Each such recommendation must be sent to the Secretary of the Company at Movado Group, Inc., 650 From Road, Paramus, New Jersey 07652 and must be received by the Secretary not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's most recent annual meeting of shareholders. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate shareholder recommended director candidates in the same manner as it evaluates director candidates identified by other means.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management Directors

The non-management directors hold regular executive sessions without management, and at least once each quarter. The chairman of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee acts as the presiding director of these executive sessions.

Communications with the Board of Directors

Shareholders may communicate directly with the full Board of Directors, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors or any individual director by sending such communication in writing to the attention of the General Counsel of the Company, 650 From Road, Paramus, NJ 07652. Such communications should indicate to whom they are intended to be directed. All communications received that relate to accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters will be referred to the chairman of the Audit Committee unless the communication is otherwise addressed. Parties may communicate anonymously and/or confidentially if they desire. All communications received will be forwarded to the appropriate director or directors.

Director Attendance at Annual Meeting

The Company encourages all of the directors to attend each annual meeting of shareholders. To that end, and to the extent reasonably practicable, the Company regularly schedules a meeting of the Board of Directors on the same day as the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All but one member of the Board of Directors attended the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Director Independence

The listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") require that a majority of the Board of Directors be independent. No director qualifies as independent unless the Board of Directors affirmatively determines that the director has no material relationship with the Company (directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). The Board of Directors broadly considers all relevant facts and circumstances relative to independence and considers the issue not merely from the standpoint of the director, but also from the viewpoint of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation. Material relationships can include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable and familial relationships (among others). In accordance with the NYSE listing standards the Board has adopted categorical standards of director independence that provide that none of the following relationships will be considered a material relationship that would impair a director's independence:

- A director who is a director, an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is a director, an executive officer or an employee, of a company that makes payments to, or receives payments from, the Company for goods or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, is less than the greater of $1,000,000 and 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues; or
- A director who serves, or whose immediate family member serves, as an executive, officer, director, trustee or employee of a charitable organization and the Company's discretionary charitable contributions to the organization are less than the greater of $1,000,000 and 2% of that organization's consolidated gross revenues.

The Board of Directors has determined that all of the non-management members of the Board of Directors, representing a majority of the entire Board, are independent under the NYSE listing standards and satisfy the Company's categorical standards set forth above.

In addition, in accordance with the NYSE listing standards, the Board of Directors has determined that the Compensation Committee and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee are composed entirely of independent directors. The Board of Directors has also determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent under the applicable rules of the SEC.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

No executive officer of the Company receives any additional compensation for serving the Company as a member of the Board of Directors or any of its committees. In fiscal 2005, directors who were not employees of the Company received an annual fee of $30,000. In addition, non-employee directors are eligible to receive stock awards under the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended. In 2001 and 2002 Ms. Hayes Adame and Messrs. Howard, Oresman and Silverstein each were awarded options to purchase 12,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock under that plan, all of which options vest in one-third increments on each of the first three anniversaries following the grant date, expire after 10 years and have an exercise price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company has an agreement with Mr. Cote that provides for the continuation of his then applicable annual base salary paid bi-weekly for 24 months following Mr. Cote's termination of employment within two years after a change in control (defined as the acquisition by a person or group of more than 50% of the combined aggregate voting power represented by the Company's then outstanding shares; or certain mergers and asset sales; or a liquidation or dissolution), except that nothing is due if his termination is because of his death, disability or for cause.

In August 2004, the Company entered into employment agreements with Mr. Karpovich, Mr. Kimick and Mr. Michno providing that, although each employee is employed at will, the relevant employee will be entitled to receive severance payments upon termination of his employment by the Company without Cause (as defined in the relevant employment agreement). The severance payments will be paid over the 12-month period after termination in bi-weekly installments equal to the employee's base salary, and the employee will also be entitled to post-termination medical benefits under COBRA.

Under a Death and Disability Benefit Plan Agreement with Mr. G. Grinberg, dated September 23, 1994, in the event of Mr. G. Grinberg's death or disability while employed by the Company, the Company will pay to his spouse, if she is then living, an annual benefit equal, as of fiscal 2005, to $365,700 (increased October 1 each year by an amount equal to two percent of the benefit that would have been payable in the prior year). Benefits are payable for the lesser of 10 years or the life of Mr. G. Grinberg's spouse, and are payable only from the general assets of the Company. Neither Mr. G. Grinberg nor his spouse may assign the Agreement or any of the benefits payable thereunder and none of the benefits are payable to the estates or any of the heirs of Mr. G. Grinberg or his spouse. The Agreement provides that it automatically terminates in the event of the termination of Mr. G. Grinberg's employment with the Company for any reason other than his death or disability and further provides that it is not to be considered a contract of employment. For purposes of the Agreement "disability" means the inability of Mr. G. Grinberg to perform the duties pertaining to his job because of accident, sickness or other illness as determined by a majority of disinterested directors.

In fiscal 1996, the Company entered into an agreement with a trust which, at that time, owned an insurance policy issued on the lives of Gedalio Grinberg and his spouse. The insurance policy provides for a death benefit of $27 million. The trustees of the trust are the three children of Mr. G. Grinberg and his spouse, namely, Efraim Grinberg, Alexander Grinberg and Miriam Phalen. Under the agreement, the trust assigned the insurance policy to the Company as collateral to secure repayment by the trust of interest free loans made by the Company to the trust in amounts equal to the premiums on the insurance policy (approximately $740,000 per annum). The agreement required the trust to repay the loans from the death benefit proceeds of the policy. At January 31, 2003 the Company had loaned the trust $5,186,860 under this agreement. On April 4, 2003, the agreement was amended and restated to transfer the policy (which at that time had a cash surrender value of $4,595,591) from the trust to the Company in partial repayment of the then outstanding loan balance which, as of that date, was reduced to $591,269. If the policy is terminated prior to the death of the insureds, the trust must repay the Company the amount of the accumulated premiums which the Company would also recover from the death benefit in the event it is paid.

Mr. Alex Grinberg, a beneficial owner of more than five percent of the Company's Class A Common Stock and the brother of Efraim Grinberg, is the President of the Company's Concord brand in the United States and earned $329,842 in salary and annual bonus in fiscal 2005. In addition, as a participant in the Company's Stock Incentive Plan, Mr. Alex Grinberg received an award of 3,000 shares of Common Stock last year, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to similar awards made to the other participants in that plan, including a three year vesting requirement.

Mr. David Phalen is the spouse of Miriam Phalen, a beneficial owner of more than five percent of the Company's Class A Common Stock, and the brother-in-law of Efraim Grinberg. Mr. Phalen is the President of Retail Operations of Movado Retail Group, Inc. and earned $437,923 in salary and annual bonus in fiscal 2005. In addition, as a participant in the Company's Stock Incentive Plan, Mr. Phalen received an award of 3,200 shares of Common Stock last year, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to similar awards made to the other participants in that plan, including a three year vesting requirement.

See "Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation" for information regarding certain business relationships between the Company and Mr. Silverstein's law firm.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Company's Compensation Committee was at all times during fiscal year 2005 comprised entirely of independent Directors who at no time were executive officers or employees of the Company. The Compensation Committee for fiscal year 2005 was comprised of Margaret Hayes Adame, Alan H. Howard, Donald Oresman, Leonard L. Silverstein and Nathan Leventhal. Mr. Silverstein is a partner at the law firm of Silverstein & Mullens, a division of Buchanan & Ingersoll, P.C. That firm rendered legal services to the Company during fiscal 2005. No executive officer of the Company has ever served as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any company whose executive officers include a member of the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee.

FISCAL 2005 STOCK OPTION GRANTS

The following table provides certain information regarding grants of stock options made during fiscal 2005 to the Named Executive Officers pursuant to the Company's 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. The only new discretionary option grants made in fiscal 2005 to any of the Named Executive Officers was an option for 15,000 shares made to Mr. Karpovich and an option for 20,000 shares to Mr. Michno. All of the other options granted to the Named Executive Officers in fiscal 2005, including all of the options granted to Mr. E. Grinberg and Mr. Cote were reload options, the issuance of which resulted from rights that were granted to the option holders as part of their initial option grants made in prior years. Under the reload program, option holders may use Company Common Stock or Class A Common Stock they have owned for at least six months to pay the exercise price of their options and have shares withheld for the payment of income taxes due on the exercise. They then receive a new reload option to make up for the shares they used or had withheld. The reload option does not "vest" (i.e., become exercisable) for six months and expires on the expiration date of the initial grant. The Company no longer grants reload options, except to the extent required by the terms of previously granted options, and most of the previously granted reload rights have been terminated, including all of those previously granted to the Named Executive Officers.

(1) The grant date present values set forth in the foregoing table were arrived at using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on the following assumptions. Volatility was assumed to be 47.96% and 46.96% based on the weekly closing prices of the underlying Common Stock for the periods ending October 31, 2004 and January 31, 2005, respectively. The risk free rate of return for each option was determined based on the yield on the grant date on a U.S. Government Zero Coupon Bond with a maturity equal to the expected term of the option prior to exercise. Exercise was assumed to occur after 3.21 and 3.99 years, respectively, for the options granted with exercise prices of $18.47 and $14.36 and after 7.0 years for the options granted with exercise price of $14.05. Dividend yields of 1.11%, 1.14% and 0.87% were assumed to be constant over the life of the options granted in March 2004 and in August 2004 and January 2005, respectively. Option grant dates were (grant date/exercise price): January 3 and 4, 2005/$18.47; August 27, 2004/$14.05 and March 25, 2004/$14.36. This schedule does not take into account provisions of the options providing for termination of the option following termination of employment or nontransferability. The dollar amounts under this column are the result of calculations using a certain option pricing model based on the foregoing assumptions and, therefore, are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the Company's Common Stock price.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

General

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") is responsible for reviewing and approving annually corporate objectives relative to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), evaluating the performance of the CEO against those objectives and determining the CEO's compensation based on that evaluation. In addition, the Committee also reviews and approves the structure for and levels of compensation for the Company's other executive officers and management, reviews significant employee benefit programs and reviews and administers the Company's 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. The Committee is comprised of Ms. Margaret Hayes Adame, Mr. Nathan Leventhal, Mr. Donald Oresman, Mr. Leonard L. Silverstein and Mr. Alan H. Howard, all of whom are independent directors.

The compensation policies established by the Company and which were in effect during fiscal year 2005 are designed to enable the Company to attract, retain, motivate and appropriately reward a group of highly qualified individuals who are expected to contribute to the Company's continued success. The three primary components of executive compensation are base pay, cash bonuses and stock based awards, primarily stock grants. The Committee reviews each component of executive compensation on an annual basis with reference to the competitive marketplace for skilled professionals, both at peer group companies and other organizations, inside as well as outside the watch and jewelry industry, and considering corporate, business unit and individual performance. To assist the Committee with such review in respect of fiscal 2005, the Committee retained a nationally recognized compensation consulting firm.

Base Salaries

Base salary levels for senior management of the Company are reviewed by the Committee in light of the Committee's assessment of the responsibilities relative to the position under consideration, as well as each individual's background, training, experience and by reference to the competitive marketplace for comparable talent. Annual increases in base salary levels, if warranted, are reviewed with reference to the individual's performance, the performance of his or her business unit and the performance of the Company as a whole. Individual performance is evaluated by reference to the extent to which specific individual and departmental goals and objectives are met. These goals and objectives vary from department to department and, within any single department, from individual to individual. Corporate performance is measured by the Committee by reference to the Company's achievement of financial performance targets set at the beginning of the fiscal year.

In fiscal 2005, the Committee approved management's recommendation to enter into retention agreements with certain executive officers and senior managers providing for severance payments that generally range from the equivalent of six to twelve months of base salary, payable only when employment is terminated without cause. Those agreements, which also contain non-compete and non-solicitation covenants on the part of the employee, also included limited equity grants in the form of stock options fully vesting after five years.

Cash Bonuses

Cash bonuses, the second key component of executive compensation, are intended to provide incentives to senior management in the short term to achieve certain operating results, which are generally determined at the beginning of the fiscal year by management in consultation with the Board and the Committee. Concurrently with approving the annual operating objectives, the Committee establishes target bonuses for the coming fiscal year as a percentage of the base salary of each executive officer. In fiscal 2005, the target bonus for each of the CEO and the Chief Operating Officer was set at 75% of their respective base salaries and bonus targets ranged from 25% to 50 % of base salary for the other executive officers. Actual incentive compensation awards may be either more or less than targeted amounts depending on actual results compared with corporate, group and individual performance measures. Certain mid-level managers are also eligible to receive bonuses, which are used as an additional, incentive-based element of compensation dependent on corporate performance and individual merit.

Based on the Company's overall performance in fiscal 2005 and its achieving substantially all of its key operating results, the Committee authorized funding of the bonus pool for the fiscal year and the payment of individual bonus amounts in-line with the achievement of those corporate results. Individual bonus amounts were also determined by reference to subjective criteria and the extent to which individual performance objectives were achieved.

Equity Based Plans

Stock ownership is the third key element of the Company's executive compensation program and is afforded to all employees through a number of various equity plans. Executive officers and senior and mid-level management employees generally receive an annual long term equity grant in the form of stock based awards granted under the Company's 1996 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"). To a lesser extent, stock options are generally awarded under the Incentive Plan for certain newly hired employees and in connection with some promotions. In addition to the Incentive Plan, equity participation is also afforded to executives and certain key employees who participate in the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan as well as to all other employees, not eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan through the Company's Employee Stock Bonus Plan, adopted in fiscal 1999 ("Stock Bonus Plan").

Stock awards and options have been awarded under the Incentive Plan on the basis of the position held by the grantee, contributions made by the person for the given fiscal year as well as expectations of future contributions. Both option and stock grants are designed to retain executive officers and enhance shareholder value by aligning the financial interests of each executive officer or other key employee with the interests of the Company's shareholders over the long term. All options granted under the Incentive Plan have an exercise price equal to or greater than the market value of the stock on the date of grant, generally vest in equal annual increments over three or five years and expire ten years from the date of grant. Some previously granted options also contained a reload feature under which option holders can use Company Common Stock (or Class A Common Stock) they have owned for at least six months to pay the exercise price of their options, have shares withheld for the payment of income taxes due on exercise and receive a new reload option to make up for the shares used or withheld. The Committee no longer grants any options with reload rights and most reload rights previously granted have been terminated, including all those granted to the CEO and the other executive officers. In fiscal 2005, the Committee again made performance awards under the Incentive Plan in the form of stock awards and generally limited option grants to newly hired key employees and in connection with the retention agreements discussed above. All stock awards of Common Stock granted under the Incentive Plan in fiscal 2005 are subject to a three year vesting requirement.

Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, participants' salary deferrals, up to either five or ten percent of base salary, are fully matched by the Company. Eighty percent of the match is in the form of cash and twenty percent is in the form of rights to Common Stock representing the number of shares (including fractional shares) of Common Stock that such twenty percent portion of the matching contribution could purchase based on the closing price of the Common Stock at the end of the calendar quarter in which the contribution is made. Vesting in Company matching contributions is 20% per year. Distributions are made beginning in January following termination of the participant's employment and are in ten annual installments unless the Company determines to make them in a lump sum.

Under the terms of the Stock Bonus Plan, the Company determines after the end of each fiscal year, depending on financial performance and subject to Compensation Committee and Board approval, whether to make a contribution of shares to the plan from its treasury shares, up to an amount equivalent in value to up to 1% of the total base salaries of all participants in the plan. For fiscal 2005 the Company contributed 15,954 shares to the plan representing one percent (1.0%) of total base salaries of all plan participants. Each participant vests in 100% of their pro-rata portion (based on salary) of such contribution after five years or upon attaining retirement age if sooner. All distributions to plan participants are in the form of shares of Common Stock of the Company, with cash payments for any fractional share amounts.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

The compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") in fiscal 2005 consisted primarily of salary and bonus. No new discretionary stock options or other stock awards under the Incentive Plan were granted to the CEO last year and his base salary, which was approved by the Committee at the beginning of the year, remained flat in fiscal 2005 compared with the prior year. Under the terms of the Company's 2001 Executive Performance Plan (see below), the bonus paid to the CEO for fiscal 2005 was approved by the Committee on the basis of the Company achieving the performance criteria for fiscal 2005 as set forth in that plan and as previously approved by the Committee, namely achieving the targeted earnings per share for that performance period. The Committee retains the discretion to reduce or eliminate payments under the Executive Performance Plan for results relative to an executive's individual performance. With reference to the CEO's performance in fiscal 2005, the Committee determined that he met or exceeded substantially all the performance goals established at the beginning of the year, including the successful integration of the Ebel business into the Company and the repositioning of the Ebel brand in the luxury watch category, as well as financial results that included at least $30 million of positive cash flow and assuring the Company's compliance with section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2006, as part of the Committee's evaluation of Mr. Grinberg's performance last year and in consultation with its independent compensation consultant, it granted Mr. Grinberg an option under the Incentive Plan to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The option vests over three years and expires 10 years from the grant date. Since the exercise price of the option is at market value on the grant date, its value is tied directly to increases in the price of the Company's Common Stock and is thus linked to the Company's long term performance.

Policy Regarding Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the tax deduction to $1 million for compensation paid to the CEO and the four other most highly compensated executive officers of the Company. Qualifying performance-based compensation is not subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. The Company's 2001 Executive Performance Plan which was adopted in fiscal 2002 is structured such that annual incentive bonuses and long-term equity-based compensation paid thereunder for the Company's most senior executives should constitute qualifying performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). However, the Compensation Committee recognizes that unanticipated future events, such as a change of control of the Company or a change in executive personnel, could result in a disallowance of compensation deduction under Section 162(m). Moreover, the Compensation Committee may from time to time award compensation that is non-deductible under Section 162(m) when in the exercise of the Compensation Committee's business judgment such award would be in the best interest of the Company.

PROPOSAL 2 - RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to be the Company's independent accountants for the year ending January 31, 2006, subject to ratification of such appointment by the Company's shareholders. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has served as the Company's independent accountants since fiscal year 1977 and is considered by the Audit Committee and the Board to be well qualified. Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. Such representatives will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR SUCH RATIFICATION. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD WILL BE SO VOTED UNLESS SHAREHOLDERS SPECIFY IN THEIR PROXIES A CONTRARY CHOICE.

DATE FOR RECEIPT OF SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Company's By-Laws set forth procedures requiring that any shareholder wishing to bring business before an annual meeting of shareholders, including the nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors, give timely written notice to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely such notice must be delivered personally or mailed to and received at the Company's principal executive offices not less than 60 or more than 90 days before the Annual Meeting, except that, if less than 70 days notice or prior public disclosure of the Annual Meeting date is given to shareholders, notice by a shareholder is timely if received not later than the close of business on the 10th day after the date notice of the Annual Meeting was mailed or public disclosure thereof was made. Shareholders' proposals intended to be presented at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company no later than January 21, 2006 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers, directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities (the "10% Stockholders") to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a practical matter, the Company assists its directors, officers and certain 10% Stockholders by completing and filing Section 16 reports on their behalf. The Company's executive officers, directors and 10% Stockholders timely complied with all such filing requirements applicable to them with respect to their beneficial ownership of Capital Stock, except that a Form 3 ("Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership") for Michael Hand, the Company's Controller, was inadvertently filed two days late. In addition, due to administrative errors, one Form 4 reporting three transactions and another Form 4 reporting two transactions the following day by Alexander Grinberg, a 10% Stockholder, were filed one and two days late, respectively; and a stock award granted to Richard Cote under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan in April 2004 was untimely reported that same month.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors, at the time of the preparation of this Proxy Statement, knows of no business to come before the Annual Meeting other than that referred to herein. If any other business should come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have discretionary authority to vote all proxies received and not theretofore revoked in accordance with their best judgment.

Upon the written request of any record holder or beneficial owner of Common Stock or Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, the Company, without charge, will provide a copy of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2005, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
