These results include the Ebel business, which was acquired on March 1, 2004. All share data has been adjusted to reflect a two-for-one stock split distributed to shareholders on June 25, 2004.

NTNE-MONTH RESULTS

- -----

- Net sales increased 25.9% to $299.0 million from $237.5 million last year. The acquisition of Ebel accounted for net sales of $28.6 million.

Net income for the nine-month period includes the dilutive impact of Ebel, which was partially offset by a legal settlement gain recorded in the second quarter of fiscal 2005. The combined effect of these two items reduced net income in the nine-month period by approximately, $2.4 million, or $0.09 per diluted share.

Efraim Grinberg, President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "Our company delivered a strong performance in the third quarter with year-over-year sales increases recorded in each of our brands and businesses. The results were driven by the steadfast execution of our strategy to develop and support our distinctive portfolio of brands through strong product development, compelling advertising campaigns, and consistent marketing support. We are also very pleased with the performance of our Movado boutiques, demonstrating consumers

Rick Cote, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, stated, "In our seasonally strongest quarter, we are very pleased that Ebel delivered an attractive sales level driven by the recently launched global advertising campaign featuring Claudia Schiffer and certain new product introductions such as the Sportwave. We expect this momentum to continue as we enhance and accelerate new product introductions beginning next year. Given the restructuring actions taken to-date, we are pleased that Ebel neared the breakeven mark to the bottom line in the third quarter. The appropriate cost structure is in place and we anticipate this business will be modestly accretive to the bottom line next year, with the potential for significant operating leverage in the future."

Mr. Grinberg concluded, "We believe our company is well positioned for the important holiday season. Our market presence is strong with significant merchandising and marketing initiatives in place to support our diverse brand portfolio and drive sales. At the same time, we remain focused on our business fundamentals and operating disciplines to further enhance our bottom line results "

The Company projects diluted earnings per share for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2005 to range between $0.98 and $1.02, compared to management's previously issued financial projections for full year earnings per share to range between $0.96 and $1.00. These projections include the anticipated dilutive impact of Ebel and a legal settlement gain recorded in the second quarter of fiscal 2005.

The Company's management will host a conference call today, December 8th at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time. A live broadcast of the call will be available on the Company's website: www.movadogroupinc.com. This call will be archived online within one hour of the completion of the conference call.
